The Principal and IQAC Chairman Karnataka Sangha's Manjunatha College of Commer Thakurli.

Subject: Brief Report of Peer learning workshop on Personal Hygiene and related issues

Respected sir,

IQAC and Women's Development Cell Of our college has organised the first-ever Peer to Peer learning session on need for maintaining hygiene of women internal organs, how it has to be done and how the menstrual cycle takes place as well as how to make sanitary pad at home in cheaper rates.

Miss. Pooja Kanojiya of SYBcom, Misss. Parvati Chauhan of SYBBI, Miss Jyoti Gupta of SYBcom. ,these girls have took an initiative to create the resources on their own. They took a training from resource persons Ms Rupali Petkar from Vacha Trust — (an NGO working creating resources for women and children) They came out with eco-friendly material like cloth to be used for creating posters which are shown and displayed during the workshop.

149 Girl students took part in this workshop. Without showing the shyness girls have even tried to solve their doubts in this regards. The teacher in-charges also highlight certain issues related "HYMEN" Which is small female body part, about which in the orthodox families the issues are created regarding girls virginity.

The program was a great success.

This is for your information

Thank You

Yours faithfully.
